What is TASP?

- The Total Army Sponsorship Program (TASP) is:
 - A program that helps commanders exercise their basic responsibility to assist Soldiers, Civilian employees and Family Members relocating into and out of their commands.
 - A program that provides trained and available sponsors equipped with the information and resources needed during times of transition.
 - A commander's program whose success is contingent upon the level of involvement provided by commanders and unit leaders.

Roles and Responsibilities

Garrison Commander

- Establish an Installation Sponsorship Liaison (ISL) for management and oversight of the TASP for all Soldiers, Civilians, Spouses and Youth.
- Ensure ISL monitors, coordinates, and manages the sponsorship program at the garrison level and work with all local commanders to ensure a successful sponsorship program for the community.
- Provide sponsor training and relocation-assistance program services on request using Army Community Service (ACS) assets.
- Maintain and provide community information packages and online information including standardized welcome packets.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Provide garrison newcomer orientations in accordance with AR 608-1.
- Establish a sponsorship link on the local garrison webpage to connect newcomers with the garrison sponsorship program monitor.
- Develop an installation specific welcome video and post to the garrison website.
- Establish a Sponsorship Oversight Committee which falls under the Relocation Assistance Coordinating Committee (RACC).

Roles and Responsibilities

Installation Sponsorship Liaison (ISL)

- Monitor automated personnel systems to track inbound and outbound Soldiers.
- Establish a generic garrison sponsorship e-mail address
 - usarmy.ansbach.imcom-europe.list.sponsorship@mail.mil
- Publicize important telephone numbers on the local garrison webpage and monitor and direct inquiries to the appropriate unit or support activity.
- Direct information on and assist with sponsorship questions, issues, or concerns regarding the gaining unit and the appropriate garrison or installation support activity.
- Coordinate with CPAC for information on incoming civilian employees.

Roles and Responsibilities

Installation Sponsorship Liaison (ISL) (cont'd)

- Ensure outbound personnel complete DA Form 5434 prior to out-processing and help them contact their gaining unit's garrison ISL or the gaining unit S1.
- Conduct unit staff assistance visits to review internal operating procedures for compliance with standard requirements, identify systemic failures, and develop improved operational procedures and concepts for increased efficiency.
- Collect, compile, and analyze sponsorship program surveys and garrison sponsorship reports to determine the effectiveness of the TASP across the garrison.
- Regularly brief senior commanders and garrison commander on the status of the TASP in their units, recommend changes and improvements, and obtain their guidance and direction for implementing changes and enhancements.

Roles and Responsibilities

Installation Sponsorship Liaison (ISL) (cont'd)

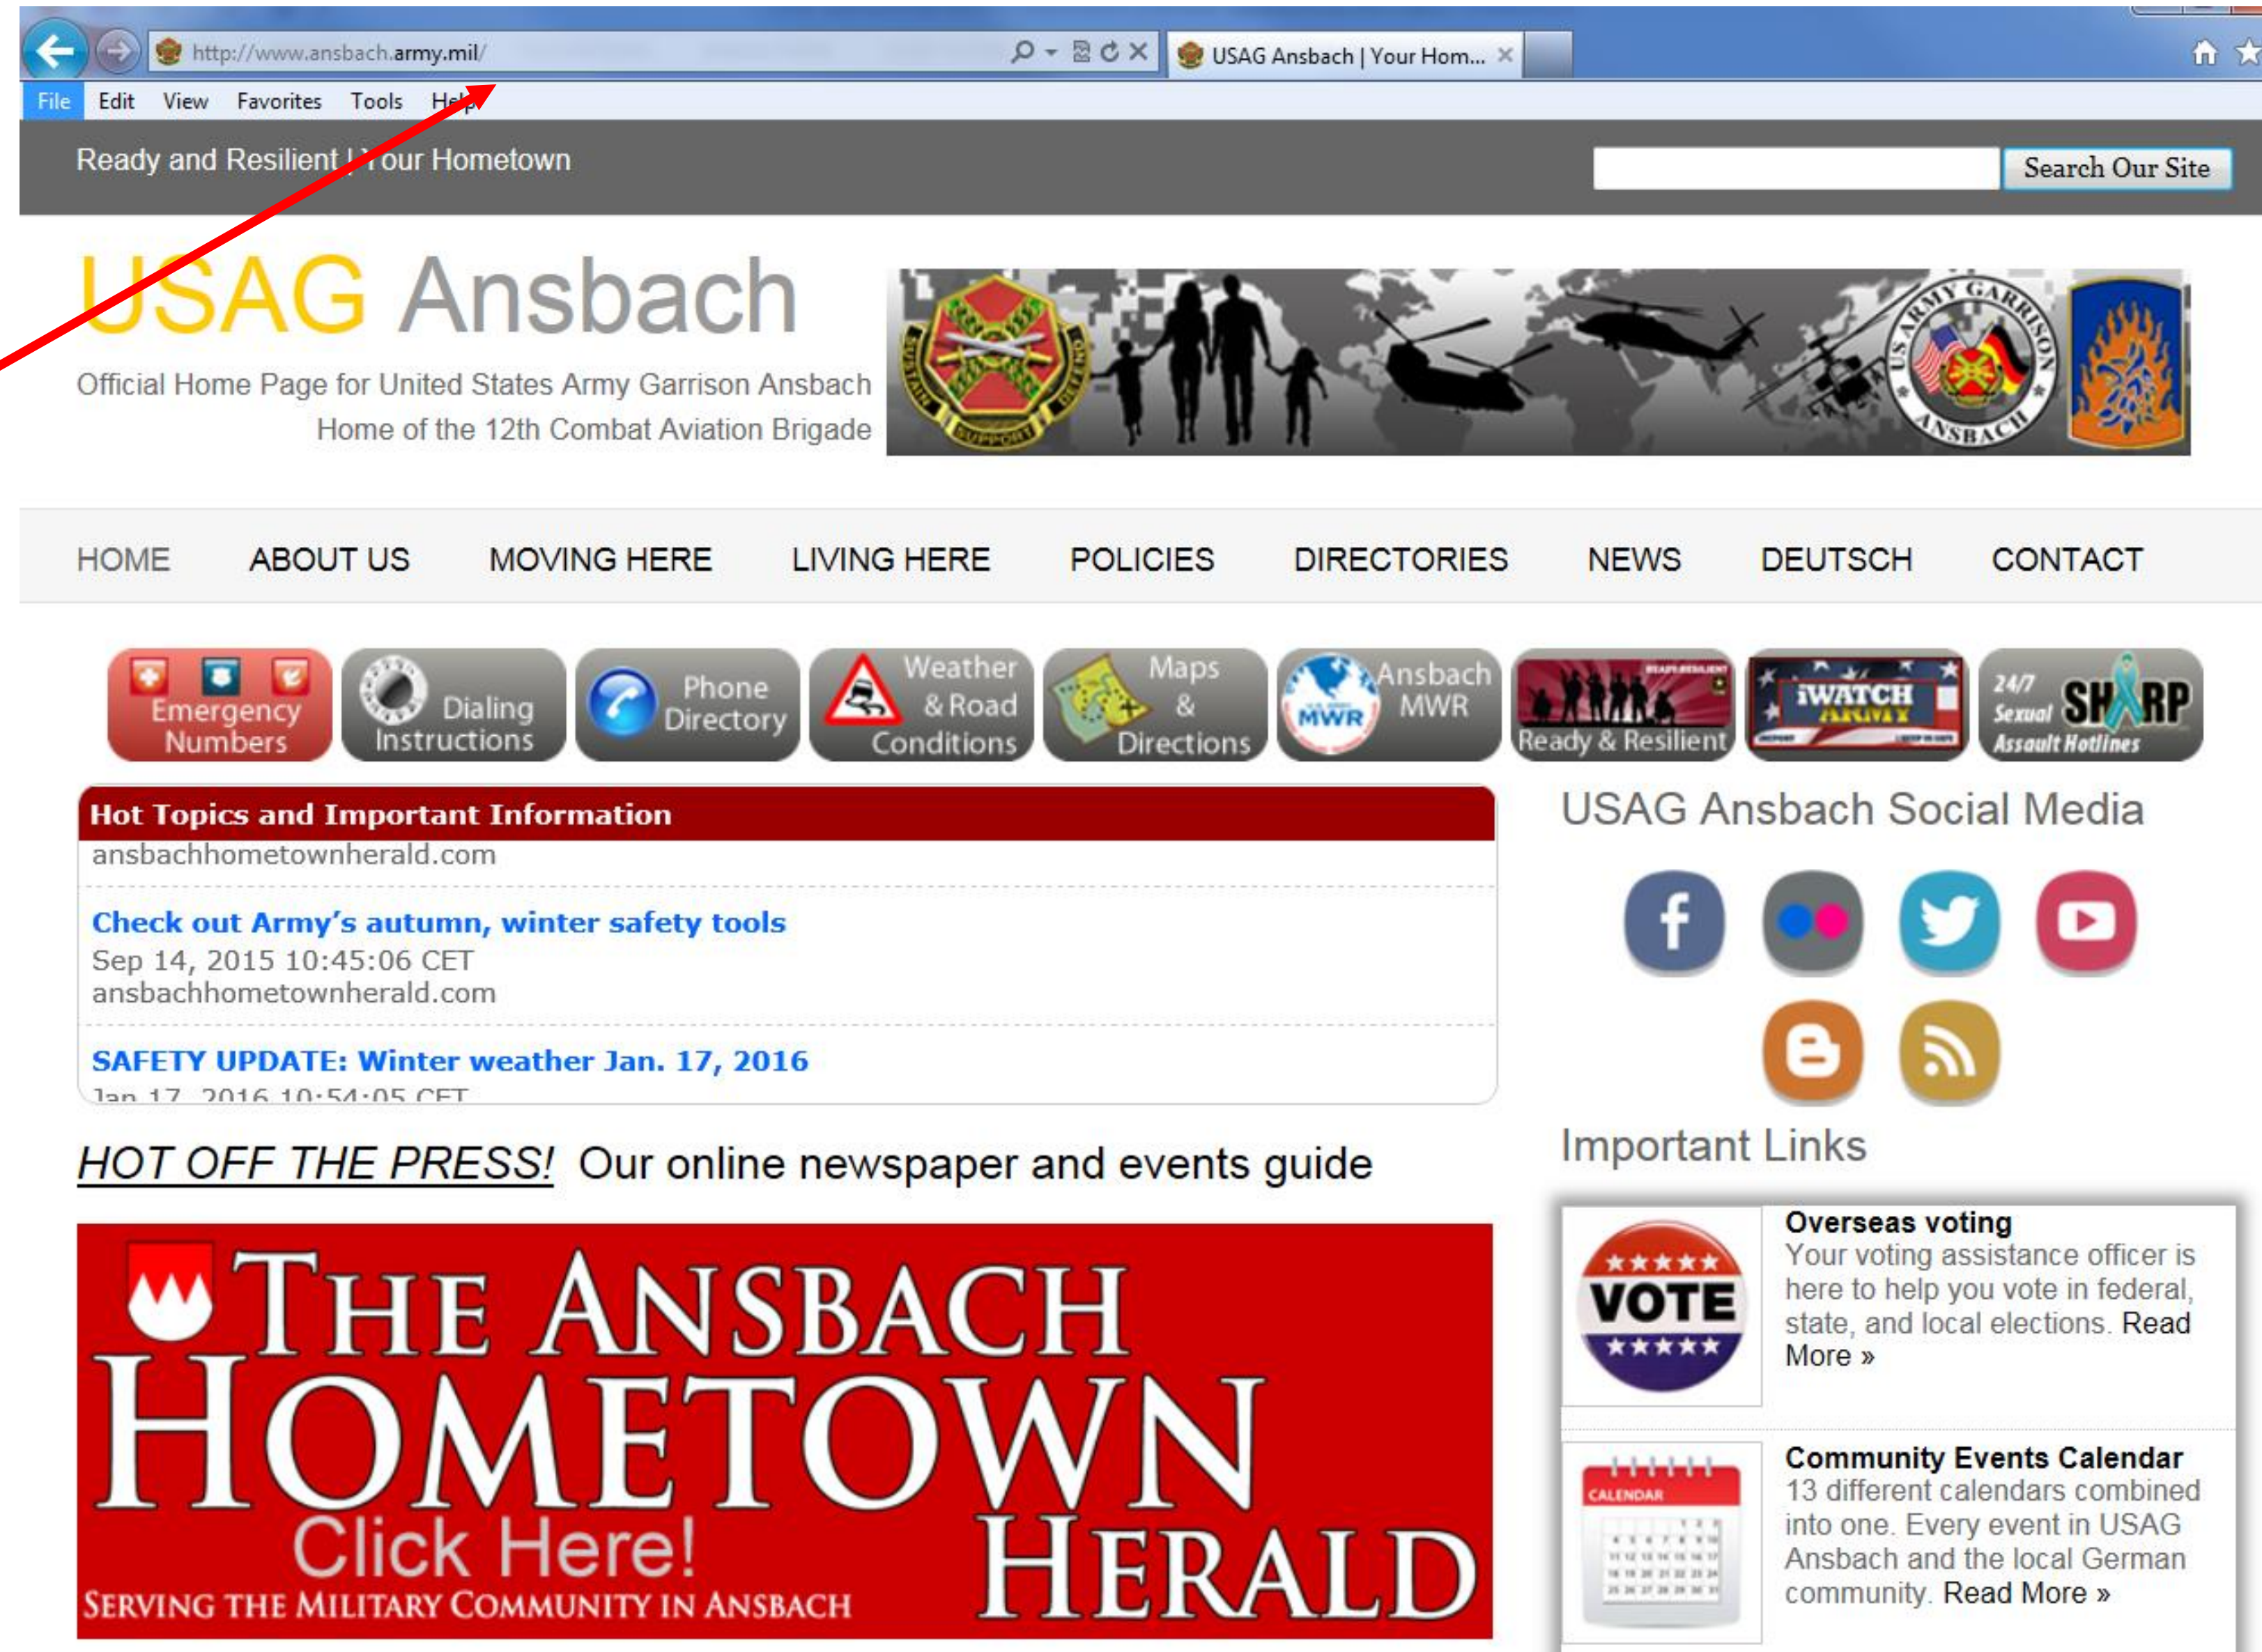

- Assists units with recognition/award programs for deserving sponsors such as Sponsor of the Quarter, Year, etc.
- Ensure all Soldiers complete the Sponsorship Survey through the Sponsorship Module as the last station of in-processing.

Newcomers Information

Welcome to USAG Ansbach and the Franconia Military Community.

Below is a brief description of what your arrival should entail and those offices that you will be directly involved with. Whether you're moving here with family members, moving here with pets, arriving unaccompanied, or have been here before, it's important to us that your move is safe and free of stress. We have also provided other links and information to assist you in a seamless and fluid transition. From the USAG Ansbach Command team, Welcome!

All Soldiers moving to Germany will fly into Ramstein Air Base. Please note: Before bringing or shipping a pet, it is important unaccompanied Soldiers coordinate with their gaining commands. If you are shipping a pet into Germany you will be charged a fee. Please see "Pet Fee Starting February 1, 2013". To learn more about bringing pets, visit Ramstein Air Base's fact sheet here.

After arrival all personnel will then process through Immigration, Customs, and collect their bags. Passengers will then move to the reception processing area and prepare for transportation to their respective units. The bus ride from Ramstein Air Base to Ansbach is approximately four hours.

The Central Processing Facility will be notified and designated personnel will be waiting for Soldiers and Family members' arrival.

Unit sponsors are authorized to pick up arriving Soldiers and Family members at Ramstein Air Base with their Commanders approval. Prior to release, Sponsors are required to sign a statement confirming they will drop off new Soldier at the gaining units Central Processing Facility immediately upon arrival.

When you arrive at the CPF a unit sponsor will be there to greet you and pick you up. Sponsors and Housing will make lodging arrangements for those Soldiers who are authorized concurrent travel and have dependents with them. Lodging will be booked at the Ansbach Army Lodge, Brainerd Hall on Urtas Kaserne (a short 5 minute drive from the CPF). If there are no rooms available at Ansbach Army Lodge, Brainerd Hall a local hotel will be used and a statement of non-availability will be issued. Single E-1 through E-6 or who are not authorized concurrent travel will be housed through their gaining unit.

The following duty day after your arrival (A+1 or Day 1) Soldiers will report in military uniform to the CPF. To ease the process and shorten the time it takes to In process, please bring with you: 15 copies of Assignment orders with all amendments, DA Form 31, your Military Personnel Records, Finance Files and all travel receipts (to include plane tickets), if on Deferred Travel DA 5888, and if you have shipped a POV DD Form 788. On A+1 you will complete: Unit in processing and leave form sign in, obtain a mailing address at the Community Mail Room (CMR), In process Family Housing/Unaccompanied Personnel Housing (UPH), Installation Access Control, DoDOS Schools and Child and Youth Services Registration if necessary.

On A+2 the Soldier along with his or her Spouse they will receive the In processing schedule along with an In processing checklist and Soldier readiness file. Later that day they will also receive briefings from Military Personnel Division, Army Community Service, Dental Facility, Medical Facility, and Finance.

During the next 12 days the Soldier will attend in processing classes. All Spouses are encouraged to accompany their Soldier to any portion of the training.

Hometown Living in USAG Ansbach

U.S. Army Garrison (USAG) Ansbach is located in the German state of Bavaria, in the region of Franken (also known as Franconia). The Franconian landscape is best described as rolling terrain dotted with lakes and streams, interspersed with low mountain ranges. Franconia is further divided into three regions: Upper Franconian, Middle Franconia, and Lower Franconia.

USAG Ansbach is located in Middle Franconia and covers an area of about 40 square kilometers and consists of the city of Ansbach and the town of Illesheim. Within these two areas are eight different installations: Katterbach Kaserne, Storck Barracks, Bleidorn Kaserne, Urlas Kaserne, Barton Barracks, Bismarck Kaserne, Shipton Kaserne, and Franken Kaserne.

Katterbach Kaserne

Katterbach Kaserne is the where the Headquarters of the 12th Combat Aviation Brigade (12th CAB) is located. Katterbach Kaserne also has on its grounds the Central Processing facility (CPF) for in and out processing, a child development center, an elementary school, the middle/high school, a fitness center, a chapel, a US post office, two banking facilities, a shoppette, medical and dental clinics, and Army family housing.

USAG Ansbach School Liaison Officer

The school liaison officer is your communications link for the Schools and Child, Youth, and School (CYS) Services within U.S. Army Garrison Ansbach. Through partnering with the local and military community, the school liaison officer assists in addressing educational issues within the garrison.

DoDDS School Lunch Program: Under the direction of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Department of Defense, the National School Lunch Program is offered to Department of Defense Dependent Schools (DoDDS) students. Students from families whose income meets the eligibility criteria may receive reduced price or free meals at their school's cafeteria.

At USAG Ansbach the Free and Reduced Lunch Program is administered by CYSS and applications are taken at USAG Ansbach CYSS Parent Central Services.

If you qualify for this program, you must go to the AAFES Customer Service Desk at the Urlas Post Exchange and establish an account and be issued a Personal Identification Number. Families in the program must notify CYSS Parent Central Services of any decrease in household size or of increases in income of more than $50 per month or $600 per year.

To apply for this program, fill out the School Lunch Program Application (link provided to the right) and submit to CYSS Parent Central Services. Please attach one copy of the Sponsor's and Spouse's (if applicable) current leave and earnings statement. If you have any questions, contact the school liaison officer.
